

Martha A.

Favorite quote.

Life is what you make it.

Most amazing event in their life?

Martha went to Ireland with her mother, brother and sister to see where their mother came from and to visit with relatives.

What is his favorite thing to do?

Martha is still very independent and enjoys doing the crossword. She is also a very good cook. Martha used to work as a cook in the towns school and the students today still talk about the good food that she made.