

Biggest accomplishment in her life?

Mildred's biggest accomplishment in her life is her nursing career and all that she accomplished in her career through the different nursing positions and leadership positions she had.

Mildred Fritz

Favorite things to do?

Mildred's favorite things to do include playing cards, playing games, crocheting, completing jigsaw puzzles, completing word searches, watching the birds and squirrels that are outside of her window. Mildred also loves to take care of others!

Mildred was a nurse during World War II. Mildred has one daughter, and raised her daughter on her own. Mildred continued her nursing career for many years - working in all different aspects in the nursing field. Mildred took care of many family members through private and home care as well. Mildred is a strong women, and has been her whole life!