

What are his favorite things to do?

William loves to socialize and tell stories! He and his wife, Marge, used to go out to eat every day. William used to play golf quite off too when the weather was nice. William stated he used to read quite a bit as well.

Something that he enjoyed doing as a child that today's kids would never dream of?

He used to play out in the streets because there was no traffic. He said the streets were his playground. He even played baseball in the streets!

William Wolter

William was born in New York, but lived in New Jersey and California for many years. William enlisted in the Air Force at 19 years old, and got out of the Air Force at 23 years old. William is a World War II Veteran. After William left the Air Force, he worked on a military base in California for over 30 years and worked on military air planes. William's first wife passed away, and William later married his wife, Marge, when he was 80 years old. William has 6 step-children. He has a great relationship with his family!